

Name of Opportunity
Law Matters Radio Show

Location
3222 S Richey St, Tucson, AZ. 85713 and various locations near U of A

Goals
To coordinate a broader listener base, produce show content, and assist with event planning, blog and YouTube development.

Position Description
Production and Promotion

Qualifications
Interest in communications and public relations
Criminal Justice or Law

Timeline (45 to 50 hours minimum)
15 hours research a show schedule
10 hours event development
5 hours writing promos/commercial - LawMatters1030.org
5 hours developing your own show
Monitor YouTube, iTunes, Google Play
10 hours interview questions
5 hours identifying future shows

Reports to
Sherry Harrison and Board of Directors

Relationships
Law enforcement, local authors and attorneys, politicians, social media, fundraising event to be held throughout the year.

Training
On the job training

Development Opportunities
Develop public speaking, event planning, report writing, show production, outline & host your own radio show, community outreach, professional and leadership skills.

Presidents Volunteer Award
All volunteer efforts in a 12-month period are applied to earning this award.

Agency Contact
Sherry Harrison * 520.310.9900 * Sherry@LawMatters1030.org

Internship Application

If interested in this opportunity, please email the following information to Sherry@LawMatters1030.org

Name

Phone

Email

School Attending

Year of Study

Course Studies

Interests outside of school

Why do you want this internship?

What skills do you bring to the table?

What topic would you discuss on your radio show?

Over the course of this school year, do you have 50 hours to dedicate to this internship?