

Spring 2025 Department of Communication Internship

Description:

The Department of Communication is seeking a self-motivated, highly organized undergraduate student intern to assist with managing, posting, editing and promoting the department's internships. This role would require students to connect with local businesses and organizations, proactively engage with COMM and PR students looking for internships and manage the department's internship listserv. This unpaid internship will also include profiling students' successful internship stories, creating and posting social media and website content for the department, and assisting with internship materials and an internship fair. Although this 3-credit internship is unpaid, it is an exciting new position in a growing department.

Qualifications:

A public relations minor with a 3.0 GPA or higher; strong writing skills; excellent interpersonal skills.

Time frame:

Spring 2025 semester

Application instructions:

Cover letter, resume, and two writing samples to Carolyn Smith Casertano, APR, Fellow PRSA carolynsmith@arizona.edu

Deadline:

Friday, December 6, 2024
