

Accelerated MA Program in Communication

The Accelerated MA Program (AMP) in Communication is designed to enable outstanding University of Arizona undergraduates to complete both the B.A. and M.A. in Communication in five years of study. This program is intended for students interested in enhancing their skill set and competitiveness on the job market and/or in admission to other graduate programs (PhD in Communication, law school, etc.).

Students with a minimum overall GPA of 3.3 are eligible to apply for admission in the spring of their junior year. If accepted into the program, they take 12 graduate credits in their fourth year (which apply toward both the BA and MA). In the fifth year they complete the remaining graduate coursework (see below for AMP Timeline, Unit Distribution, and course offerings).

To apply, students must complete the Department’s AMP application on page 6 (below) and submit required paperwork and application fees with the Graduate College. Once admitted, students must maintain a 3.0 GPA in graduate coursework and a 3.3 undergraduate GPA. Application materials as well as additional eligibility and degree policies are also available on the Department of Communication website.
