- Communication and Cognition
- Research Methodology

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Consultant, Florida Department of Public Health, 2024

Provided guidance on regulations to limit the marketing of medical marijuana products to children and teens.

Consultant, The Marketing Audit, Inc. 2011-2012.

Provided statistical analyses and expertise on surveys investigating international corporate development and regulatory compliance.

Research Assistant, Annenberg School for Communication, University of Pennsylvania, 2006-2010.

Assisted Dr. Deborah L. Linebarger with numerous evaluations of children's educational programs and helped co-direct a nationally representative survey of American parents.

Research Assistant, Center for Health, Intervention, and Prevention, University of Connecticut-Storrs, 2005-2006.

Supported Dr. Leslie B. Snyder with her work on evaluating mediated health campaigns and studied the impact of food advertising on diet.

Independent Researcher, Department of Communication Sciences, University of Connecticut-Storrs, 2005-2006.

Investigated the prevalence and outcomes related to commercial involvement in public schools. Thesis Advisor: Dr. Kirstie M. Farrar.

TEACHING and ADVISING EXPERIENCE

Associate Professor, Department of Communication, University of Arizona, 2021-Present.

Assistant Professor, Department of Communication, University of Arizona, 2015-2021.

Currently teaching courses in, Children and Media, Health Communication, Survey of Mass Communication, Media & Health, Mass Communication Theory (graduate), Paradigms of Mass Media (graduate level), Health Communication Theory (graduate level), and Children, Advertising & Persuasion (graduate level). Responsible for planning and administering class lectures, grading student papers, developing exams, and overall course grading.

Assistant Professor, Department of Communication Studies, University of North Carolina Wilmington, 2012-2015.

Taught courses in Health Communication, Engaging Contemporary Media, Communication Theory, Children & Media, Applied Quantitative Methods, and Public Speaking. Responsible for planning and administering class lectures, grading student papers, developing exams, and overall course grading. Also responsible for advising twenty undergraduate minors.

Lecturer, School of Social Policy and Practice, University of Pennsylvania, 2012.
Taught specific sections of Social Policy 632: Capstone Seminar, a course for graduate students in social policy. Lectured on two topics: Conducting Research in Charged Policy Environments and Communicating Research Findings to the Media. Both lectures were designed to help professional graduate students in their roles as policy advisors and advocates. Responsible for planning and administering class lecture and assisting in course grading.

Lecturer, Annenberg School for Communication, University of Pennsylvania, 2012.
Taught Communication 299: Communication & Media Internships, a course for upper level undergraduate majors in communication. The course was for students participating in professional internships and provided them with the opportunity to apply communication theory to their internship organization and their role within it. Responsible for planning and administering class lectures, grading student papers, talking with internship supervisors, and overall course grading.

Undergraduate Research Assistant Supervisor, Annenberg School for Communication, University of Pennsylvania, 2006-2011.
As part of my duties as a graduate research assistant, I supervised teams of research assistants working on my various projects. Primary responsibilities included instruction on relevant methodology (e.g., coder agreement), instruction on maintaining methodological rigor, directing research meetings and oversight of research activities.

Course Section Instructor, Department of Communication Sciences, University of Connecticut-Storrs, 2004-2005.
Taught Communication 105: Principles of Public Speaking, an introductory public speaking course for undergraduates. Taught two sections of the course in both the fall and spring semesters with approximately 25 students per section. Responsible for planning and administering class lectures, grading student speeches, helped to create mid-term/final exam and overall course grading.
